Enclosed herewith is one building registry book from the Bon Ami Building, 445 Park Avenue, NYC. Also enclosed is a memorandum to AUSAS, dated 11/7/51 and two letters to USA Mc GOHEY from ROY COHN. This material was furnished by AUSA DONALD COHN, SDNY on 9/24/62.

AUSA COHN advised that his office has received information to the effect that on Page 338 of the registry book the names [redacted] (In 2:20, Out 3:19) and [redacted] (In 2:20, Out 3:19) were both signed by ROY COHN. AUSA COHN advised that the memorandum and two letters referred to above are all in the handwriting of ROY COHN.

AUSA COHN has requested that a handwriting comparison be conducted by the Laboratory to attempt to determine if ROY COHN did sign the two names in the registry book.

AUSA COHN stated that the reason he was requesting this handwriting comparison was, he felt, that ROY COHN was either developing an alibi or making an attempt to embarrass the USA's office.

Hon. John F.X. McGohey
United States Attorney, S.D. N.Y.
New York, New York

Dear Mr. McGohey,

This is to state my interest in an appointment as an assistant on your staff.

I was born in New York City on February 20, 1927, and have resided there all my life. I am a graduate of the Fieldston Lower School and of the Horace Mann School for Boys (high school). I received my Bachelor of Art degree from Columbia College in 1946, having been on the Dean's congratulatory list during the entire time of my attendance there. I have completed all requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Laws from the Columbia University School of Law from which I expect to be graduated this fall. During my attendance at law school, I took special interest in subjects concerned with Federal law and procedure, and I completed an essay study of "The Anti-Trust Law in New York" for Professor Milton Handler, as well as one on "The Constitutionality of Blue-Sabbath Laws" for Professor Noel T. Dowling, both of which papers have received generous praise from members of the judiciary well-versed in those subjects. I have for many years been keenly interested in legal developments on the state and federal scenes, and have had some valuable experience in research and in the mechanics of the law.

Respectfully yours,
Roy M. Cohn

here but I didn't talk to him. They asked me about this [redacted] thing. Forget I even said this to you. I think they may drop the whole thing, which would be the best thing that ever happened. They didn't ask me anything pertaining to this - they did ask me if [redacted] - -.

They said, did he ever mention the name [redacted] I said, I don't know who he is. The extent of it was we were playing golf, we teed off and were walking down the third hole. He said, do you know a fellow named [redacted] Do you know a fellow by this name. They are investigating him. I said, no, does [redacted] know him. I said, I don't know, why don't you ask him. He says, where is he. I said, In Clare, Michigan. I went and hit the second shot and never said another word about it.

Course I don't know what the deals are back there, but my indications are, and I'm going to keep my fingers crossed, that only - - that they will completely drop this thing and then he can finalize my situation. I left - they said first they wanted me to put that in a statement, then they asked me, who went out with you to dinner. Who arranged it. I said, nobody arranged it. They said, what did you talk about in the bar at [redacted] I said, small talk. They said, where did you sit and where did [redacted] sit - what did you discuss. I said, small talk. They said, when you left did you and [redacted] walk behind. I said, yes. They said, what did you talk about. I said, I told him to keep his nose out of this - that I didn't even want to discuss it and if he had an obligation, I would think he is crazy. They said, did you argue with him. I said, no, we did not argue, but I may have talked in an excited voice. They said, did [redacted] join you. I said, yes, I imagine he did. They said, you may have obligations to (?), and he reiterated it to me. I have never said another word to this man about the whole thing you know. He said, what did you do - - -. I said, I had one drink and went home since I had to come down and see you fellows this morning. They said, will you make a statement to this effect. I said, yes. I don't want you to tell this to anybody because I don't want to get you [redacted] involved.

LV [redacted]

So I get down there and they said, we don't even need a statement. I went in there with fire in my eyes. The thing is, that [redacted] made a bad move. They have been following him and they know every (Obscene) move he makes. I have personally never discussed it with [redacted] even.

[redacted] The thing is I don't want to get involved in this.

[redacted] I don't know why [redacted] got involved. Don't ever repeat what I just told you. Good or bad you are out of this thing only because you did what I told you.

[redacted] What do you think they are going to say? [redacted] only got (?).

[redacted] When he got into this thing - not that he is involved, he isn't.

[redacted] But he committed just as big a crime by trying to cause an obstruction (?).

[redacted] And I think ROY (COHN) went with [redacted] once. I never knew it until just the other day. [redacted] asked me and called me up and I said, I don't know. Otherwise now COHN is dead.

[redacted] And [redacted] got (?) on a curve and I took him to the hospital and finally got him in a cab and then got him back to the hotel room. No one has ever found it out.

The above appears to be a recital by [redacted] of incidents connected with his recent trip to New York City, where he was apparently in contact with United States Attorneys.

Later on on 10/3/62, [redacted] placed a long distance telephone call to [redacted] to number [redacted] in New York City. Following is [redacted] portion of the conversation:

I didn't call the other attorney yet [redacted] of New York City) says it's absolutely untrue, he told me that today. They are having a meeting in the summit room at twelve noon on Saturday - You are buying a lot of trouble and you have nothing to gain if you tell the truth. The stock was not legally issued - It was legally issued in any state but

LV [redacted]

California. [redacted] signed the stock certificates - You will only hurt yourself and you can't help anybody - [redacted] if you try to bring [redacted] and [redacted] into this, you are going to hurt them and also hurt you - Why does he dislike ROY - There will be no cake to divide to anybody if you upset that one - [redacted] let me tell you this, ROY, for all his headstrongness, is in terrible trouble - I'm the only smuck because I got nothing coming and I go along. What can I do - That's what we did in the other fight - Let them prove it to you the other way. Let them show how they made it on the books - Please, on the other thing, I'm beseeching you, you owe me that at least - If we get our money back from the Government there will be maybe 1,700,000 after expenses. (?) $2,000,000.00 over a 17 year period - [redacted] all I'm telling you is that on this circumstance you make it impossible to follow the plan that was going to be done - I know [redacted] you have got to protect yourself, but - Of course, championship sports will get over 700,000 - What I don't appreciate is this, I have spent too much time and I don't get anything but a kick in the face and if you're not going to listen to me and go off halfcocked, I don't appreciate that. You're willing to go down to Washington and see they file a return and that's as far as you'll go. All I'm telling you is they are on a cash basis of accounting - [redacted], I want you to differentiate between what I'm testifying and what I'm telling you. I further happen to know how he spent so much time trying to protect a corporation called [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted]. Remember that, and it's awful (Obscene) silly for you to try and upset that apple cart now. I'm ashamed of you and I'm telling you this.

[redacted] terminated the above conversation and shortly thereafter telephonically contacted [redacted] portion of the conversation is as follows:

We are going to hold a meeting of a Nevada corporation to remove the president and vice president. They hold seven and one-half per cent of the stock on one side and the other stockholders, who are members of the board, own the remaining ninety-two and one-half per cent. The president and vice president will probably allege that the stock was issued illegally because it is a Nevada corporation and they did not get their stock in Nevada. It was issued in California - No, this is no small company - California might not like the idea, but other states all recognize it - Anyhow this is very important. I might even tell you what it is. There are some very important people in it. This is [redacted], and [redacted]

b7C

LV [redacted]

b7C

They are the ones who came under the [redacted] So there is a lot of money involved - couple million bucks.

b7C

[redacted] has advised that [redacted] of New York has been in and out of Las Vegas several times in the last week and he has been in telephonic contact with ROY COHN in New York. Local Agents of IRS have advised that a meeting of the stockholders of the above corporation was held in Las Vegas on 10/5/62. This was attended by [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted], all of New York City. [redacted] and possibly an individual named [redacted] were also in attendance along with [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted] also of New York are principal stockholders but neither they nor ROY COHN were in attendance at the meeting.

IRS Agents interviewed [redacted] following the meeting and he admitted instant corporation had the [redacted] to the [redacted] but he claimed no stock had ever been issued in the corporation.

[redacted] SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS

On September 24, 1962, AUSA COHN advised that his office had received information to the effect that on Page [redacted] of the [redacted] the names [redacted] and [redacted] were both signed by ROY COHN. b7D

AUSA COHN made available the above [redacted] as well as a memorandum to AUSAs dated November 7, 1951, and two letters to USA MC GOHEY, from ROY COHN. AUSA COHN requested that a handwriting comparison be conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Laboratory to attempt to determine if ROY COHN did sign the two names on the [redacted]

AUSA COHN stated that the reason he was requesting this handwriting comparison was he felt that ROY COHN was either developing an alibi or making an attempt to embarrass the USA's office. He explained that [redacted] a securities case that is now being tried in the SDNY, and on August 4, 1962, the date [redacted] name was signed in the [redacted] he was actually incarcerated in the Federal House of Detention, New York City. AUSA COHN stated that this would seem to infer favored treatment by the USA's office to a government witness.

By report dated October 2, 1962, the FBI Laboratory advised that because of the limited nature of the questioned material and the lack of comparable known handwriting a definite conclusion was not reached as to whether ROY COHN wrote the signatures of [redacted] b7D

On September 18, 1962, AUSA WALPIN requested additional investigation to determine if [redacted] in addition to those previously reported. b7D

This is to advise of the current status of this investigation and to adviseof a request from the SAC, New York, that information be confidentially furnished the U. S. Attorney (USA), Southern District of New York (SDNY) which has been obtained from a microphone surveillance [redacted] indicating one of the chief potential Government witnesses is not cooperating fully with the USA, SDNY.

BACKGROUND

This case relates to the investigation being conducted into the alleged payment of $50,000 to Morton Robson while he was an Assistant USA, SDNY, and to Roy Cohn, by the subjects of a Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) case involving the United Dye and Chemical Corporation, to control the indictment in this SEC case. As a result, Allard Roen, Samuel Garfield, Allen Swann, and Irving Pasternak were allegedly omitted from the indictment handed down on 8/25 The case was re-presented to a grand jury, and on 11/2/60, all subjects were indicted for the SEC violation. The USA, SDNY, has for some time had a Federal grand jury probing into the alleged bribery of Robson and Cohn.

INVESTIGATION CONDUCTED

We have conducted considerable investigation at the request of the USA as new facts are obtained by this grand jury probe. The USA has requested that the FBI not interview a number of individuals who were involved in the United Dye case, trial of which has not been completed as yet. One of the persons whom we have been instructed not to interview is [redacted] who [redacted] and Cohn.

[redacted]

It has been determined by microphone surveillance [redacted] that [redacted] has not been completely cooperative although the incomplete details which he has testified to before the grand jury were substantially true. Information was also developed by this microphone surveillance that [redacted] had knowledge of the alleged bribe of Robson and Cohn. New York recommended that this information be furnished to the USA on a confidential basis, particularly since it points up the fact that [redacted] has not been completely cooperative to date.

INVESTIGATION BEING CONDUCTED

Investigation is continuing in an effort to develop facts to prove that Robson was in Las Vegas on 8/23/59, the date of the alleged bribe payoff, [redacted]

The New York Office is maintaining daily contact with the USA for pertinent developments in the grand jury probe, and for any additional investigation necessary to fully develop this case. New York has been instructed that all leads in this case must receive top priority handling and that leads to auxiliary offices must be completed and reported within five days.

RECOMMENDATION:

That New York be instructed to furnish the information developed by the microphone surveillance [redacted] to the USA, SDNY, this dissemination to be made, with complete concealment of the sources, by ASAC Alton M. Bryant to Chief Criminal AUSA Silvio J. Mollo who has been very friendly with the FBI for many years.

8 Months, Still Going

Stock Fraud Trial Longest in History

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP) After more than eight months of trial, the Government has rested its case in the prosecution of four individuals and a corporation accused of swindling the public out of $5 million through a stock fraud.

Officials say the case already has set a record in being the longest criminal jury trial ever conducted in any Federal court. Previously, they say, the longest was the 1949 case of first-string Communist leaders who were convicted after seven months of trial.

In the current Federal Court case, the defendants are charged with conspiracy in the illegal sale of 575,000 shares of unregistered stock of United Dye & Chemical Corp. The Government contends the 1955-56 sales were made through high-pressure telephone and mail campaigns.

During the course of the trial, nine individuals and three corporations pleaded guilty.

Still on trial are Virgil D. Dardi, former head of United Dye; Charles Rosenthal, a broker; Robert B. Gravis, a broker; Gravis' defunct corporation, and Charles M. Berman, also a broker.

The government presented 60 witnesses, and the trial record to date totals 19,000 pages. Presentation of the defense's case is expected to start later this week, and several more weeks probably will elapse before the jury of seven men and five women begins deliberations.
